2013 San Francisco Collaborative Against Human Trafficking Teen Poster Contest

San Francisco Collaborative Against Human Trafficking

Contest Theme

From Bystander to Upstander: Taking Action Against Abuse

Definitions of "Upstander"

n. A person who takes action, particularly when the easiest or most acceptable course is to do nothing. [Cf. bystander.] -- Word Spy

An individual, group, or institution that chooses to take a positive stand and act on behalf of themselves and others. -- Facing History and Ourselves to Combat Racism, Anti-Semitism, and Prejudice

An upstander is someone who takes action on behalf of others. There are many examples of ordinary people taking extraordinary actions to help others – even those they do not personally know. -- Houston Holocaust Museum

The first 20 entries received will get a $10 iTunes gift card.**
